Additional Craft Ideas for Land of the Giants

What Child Is This? Hymn Chart / Story / Activity

We hinted in our last newsletter that Land of the Giants was "coming". It is now here! We premiered it this summer at the Capital Baptist Association Camp in Oklahoma City, worked out the kinks and now happily present it to you. The CBAC was gracious enough to give us permission to use the craft ideas that were a part of the music camp and we are happy to share them with you in this issue.

My PAM friends are the best! I love you and your support means the world to me.

Pam

New Non-Seasonal

Easter Mini-Musical

Back by popular demand...

This was our first musical for PAM. Same great songs and script. We've recently updated the resources, making it even better!

The Dogwood Story

An Easy-to-Perform Easter Mini-Musical

Share the wonderful message of Easter. Using the lovely dogwood blossom as a guide, this musical reveals the sacrifice Jesus made for each of us. You will love the versatility of this work as well as the Biblical message it teaches. God bless you and we hope you have a wonderful time with The Dogwood Story

Land of the Giants

Non-Seasonal Musical for Children

In Land of the Giants everything is larger than life. The Giants, a little league team, realizes their chances of a winning season seem unlikely due to their inexperience and lack of talent. They are especially worried about facing the Phillies-Team, who have the biggest, baddest, batting line-up in the area. As they begin practicing, their ball accidentally flies over the fence.

They climb through a loose board and discover the Land of the Giants—a land where grass towers over their heads and soda cans are bigger than barrels. They meet Hopper, a cool critter from this new world who introduces the kids to great faith lessons from the Bible using some interesting Bible personalities.

The message of courage and faith in God as well as some of the coolest songs ever will inspire you and your kids.

The PROMISE CRUISE

Non-Seasonal Musical for Children

Join the Wake Up! World television news show hosts as their guests tell the story of God's saving grace—a message just as relevant today as in Noah's time. Through the flood, God preserved Noah in the ark, a picture of our life in Christ. These fun songs will help your children remember the redeeming love of our Lord long after your production. From talking animals to power tools, this musical will appeal to everyone.

Two more great Non-Seasonals Download Samplers are always FREE

KiDS 150

A Praise and Worship

Mini-Musical Experience for Children

KiDS 150 provides a fun and rockin' praise and worship experience for your children. They will enjoy the contemporary sound of the music and you will love the hopeful and positive message the lyrics express. There is also an optional congregational ending.

Performance time is approximately 20 minutes.

AND we have recently introduced three collections for your preschoolers.

Teach your young children the truths of God's Word through these 10 easy-to-sing songs just for them.

Teach your young children the principles of the Christian life through these 10 easy-to-sing songs about friends, family and special holidays.

As with all our collections, a Movement DVD, Listening/Split Track CD, Resource Materials CD (which includes Spiritual Lessons with activities, and Musical Lessons) are all available as Companion products to these books.

Teach your young children about living in God's world. Get the wiggles out with these 10 easy-to-learn, clap, snap and sing songs.

Behind the scenes at PAM

Married, with dogs.

John's been in the music business as an arranger for 30+ years. He and his wife, Ramelle moved to Nashville, Tennessee fifteen years ago from southern California. A few years after settling in Nashville, he met Pam and has been working on musicals with her ever since.

John helps turn Pam's ideas into the music you listen to and perform with. Since the creation of the PAM company, he also writes out the scores and compiles all the music you purchase as books or downloads.

John DeVries

He has always been the keyboard player for his church and also plays trombone in a Dixieland band, Jazz band and Community band. Recently he began offering trombone quartet arrangements of public domain music like Christmas carols, hymns and other compilations for sale on eBay. If that's an interest of yours, go to eBay, search for "Trombone Quartets."

* TOP DOG

Both John and his wife are PK's – preacher's kids. They actually met when they were kids (she doesn't remember him) when their father's were serving churches in the same Seattle/Kent/Edmonds, WA area. They re-met in their mid 20's when their father's worked together in San Dimas, California. The rest is history (27 years in fact).

Dan Oxley

Married with children.
Wife, Donna, and three sons,
Matthew, Jordan and Nathan.

As a recording engineer and producer, Dan has worked with numerous artists and publishing companies over the years including Lifeway, Brentwood Benson, Lillenas, Hal Leonard, and Shawnee Press. He has also engineered and produced numerous university and corporate projects.

Dan is also considered one of the premier trumpet players in America.

He attended Grace College and Olivet Nazarene University before playing trumpet for three years with the contemporary Christian group, TRUTH. In 1982, he received a bachelor's degree in music performance from Azusa Pacific University. Dan has performed in churches and concert halls across America as well as Japan, China, South Korea, North Korea, Israel, Russia, Brazil and Canada. You can hear him playing trumpet on all the brass tracks in PAM's musicals.

Dan has been the man behind the soundboard engineering, mixing and editing Pam's musicals in his recording studio for over 10 years. In the new PAM company, he is also the man overseeing (if you didn't order a download) your product shipment.

The son of missionary parents, Dan spent the first 17 years of his life in Japan.

Dan is also an avid runner and has started and finished marathons at home in Nashville as well as St Louis, Louisville and Chicago.

Dan's website www.danoxley.com is chock full of charts for the brass player and music for those who love to listen. He also has a site with information related to his studio—check it out at www.danddstudios.com.

Additional Craft Ideas for Land of the Giants

Baseball Coasters

Round White Plastic Lids (small yogurt size)
50-75 White Pony Beads
12-20 Red Pony Beads
Tacky Glue
Bamboo Skewer

- Fill the plastic lid with white pony beads.
- Replace a half circle on each side with red beads to make the baseball's stitching. A skewer may be used to remove the white beads and place red ones.
- Put a generous layer of tacky glue in an empty lid.
- Turn the lid with the glue upside down on the beaded lid. Turn the lids upside down again, transferring the beads into the lid with the glue.
- Remove the empty lid. Use the skewer to readjust any beads that have moved.

Dessert Cups

Small Plastic Helmets
LOG logos printed on large address labels

- Cut and stick to the front of the helmet.
- Load with treat—enjoy!

Baseball Fan

2 Small Paper or Styrofoam Plates
Jumbo Craft Stick
Packing Tape
Tacky Glue
Red Markers

- Use a red marker to add stitching lines on the back of each plate.
- Tape the craft stick securely to the front of one of the plates.
- Glue the paper plates front-to-front. Staple edges if necessary.

Writing Pad

Copy this page onto white cardstock.

Small Writing Pad Cover

- 1 small 5" x 8" notepad per child.
- Cut the above LOG logo along the lines (adjust as necessary).*
- Hold in place as a cover with red duct tape.

Autograph Ball

- Cut out one baseball for each child.
- Give each child a colored pencil.
- Have the children collect autographs from other players on their "team".

* When you purchase a Land of the Giants product all the LOG art and graphics is available to you—FREE.

What Child Is This?

TEXT: William C Dix

GREENSLEEVES

MUSIC: Traditional English, 16th Cent.

What Child is this— who, laid to rest— On Ma - ry's lap— is sleep - ing? Whom Why lies He in— such mean es - tate,— Where ox and ass— are feed - ing? Good
So bring Him in - cense, gold and myrrh,— Come pea - sant, king— to own Him; The an - gels greet— with an - thems sweet,— While shep - herds watch— are keep - ing?

Chris - tians, fear,— for sin - ners here— The si - lent Word— is plead - ing.
King of kings— sal - va - tion brings,— Let lo - ving hearts— en - throne Him.

This, this— is Christ the King,— Whom shep - herds guard— and an - gels sing;
Nails, spear— shall pierce Him through, The cross be borne— for me, for you.
Raise, raise— a song on high,— The vir - gin sings— her lul - la - by.

Haste, haste,— to bring Him laud,— The Babe,— the Son— of Ma - ry.
Hail, hail— the Word made flesh,— The Babe,— the Son— of Ma - ry.
Joy, joy— for Christ is born,— The Babe,— the Son— of Ma - ry.

Hymn Story

WHAT CHILD IS THIS?

Written by William Chatterton Dix, 1865

Born in 1837, Bristol, England

Died in 1898 Cheddar, England

William spent most of his life as manager of a Maritime Insurance Company in Glasgow, Scotland, but his hearts' desire was for poetry and worship. He wrote more than 40 hymns and carols over the course of his life.

When he was 29 years old he contacted a near fatal illness and as a result was confined to his bed for many months. It was during this time he wrote many of his hymns.

William paired his lyrics for What Child Is This? to a well known old English ballad by a unknown composer called Greensleeves. It has been a popular Christmas carol passed down and sung each year as we the celebrate our Savior's birth.

Another hymn written by Dix you might know is As With Gladness Men of Old.
